

How many fruits of our forests do you know? We propose a guided itinerary through the northern slope of the Matagalls, so that you can discover and identify what fruits and flavors the forest has in store for us.

We will take a route following the footpaths of the Matagalls and end up at Mas el Pujol de Muntanya, where we will discover a farm dedicated to red fruits and enjoy a taste of their fruits and jams.

There is also the option to spend the night before at the Alberg el Casal.
