Centre d'Informació de la Rectoria
del Brull
08559 El Brull

How to get there?

You need to wear walking shoes.
You will need to book.

The church, the castle ruins, the Casademunt santory...all these buildings are part of the ancient heritage that is carved in the red stone that was used to build at the time.

The geological history of the rock at El Brull goes back even further to some 200 million years ago. And the jam that we will taste and is made at the foot of the Matagalls mountain is also red.
